A STARTLING UPSET AT BROOKLYN THE FIRST RACE TAKEN BY AN EXTREME OUT-

SIDER-HAMBURG IN THE EXCEL SIOR STAKES.

The first race at the Brooklyn track yesterday supefied the spectators because it fell to a younga contest at five furiongs for a purse of $600 for two-year-olds which had never won a race. R. L. Rose's colt Chaimers, ridden by Doggett, was the favorite, but he was never prominent or dangerous. and third ames R. Keene's Field Lark, Lakeland's Maximo Gomez and F. E. Lown's Long Acre had many difficulty in getting first place with plenty to spare. while First Fruit, who had few admirers and few backers, was second. It was a highly lucrative race for the bookmakers. To make amends for the massacre of public choices in that first affair, the favorite, J. E. Seagram's fast colt Cavalero, was handsomely trimphant in the second race, and he carried a great Mr. Seagram bought Cavalero a few days ago for $6,000. It is plain that this was a sagacious investment. Cavalero ran like a colt wagers on Cavalero. Dr. Catlett was the second Reports have come from the West at variseven pounds inferior to Ornament, but the truth is that the good Doctor C. yesterday was at least unds a worse colt than Ornament is. eir friends put their money on the worthy procrastinating physician as if he were a medical It is safe to say that if any member of the medical profession ventured to prescribe any pills which moved his patients as slowly as Dr. Catlett moved, the compounder of potions would Dr. Catlett may be more agile at some future date, but yesterday his gait was so dilatory as to give rise to a theory that he | between second and shird Cavalero. August Belmont's Octagon started with 121 pounds up. He rushed out into the lead and ran swiftly for six furlongs. But he was conceding eight pounds to Cavalero, twenty pounds to Lord Zeni and eight pounds to Dr. Catlett. Moreover, he was ridden by Hewitt. Hence he was not a factor in the battle in the homestretch, and even the des-Catlett arrived at his office in advance the multi-cornered Octagon.

The mighty Hamburg walked away with the Excelsior Stakes, as was to be expected. It was asishing that the bookmakers were so bold as to vas even 1 to against Hamburg. If there was ever a certainty on any racetrack since Alamanta ran her famous race with Hippomenes for colden apples, it was that Hamburg would win he Excelsior. The betting should have been to to 1 on Hamburg. There will be no racing to-day. To-merrow at the Brooklyn track the First Special, of $2,500, at a mile and a sixteenth, will be decided. The starters in the First Special will carry a special scale of weights, iii pounds for three-year-olds and 125 younds for horses older than three years. Amons the entries are Ben Brush, Hastings and Requital. Voter was entered, but he is in England. First Mate, Typhon II and Handspring were entered, but no one of that three seems to be formidable at this time. The Friar was entered, but he is so sick that he may never race again. FIRST HONORS FOR FORBES.

Forbes, of the Orange Lawn Tennis Club, captured first honors in both singles and doubles of the club-championship tournament yesterday afternoon at Mountain Station, N. J. He heat Ward three straight sets in the final match in the singles, and only one of them was close. Ward lobbed steadily in the last set, and Forbes, who seemed to be tiring, found it difficult to kill the ball. He finally took the set after deuce had been reached, finally took the set after dence had been reached, and this gave him the match. This victory earns for him the right to challenge Paret, the club champion, for his title and the challenge bowl emblematic of the club championship. This match will be played to-morrow afternoon.

In the doubles Forbes and Miles had an easy victory in the final round over the Lyman brothers, and they will meet Paret and Ward, the holders of the club championship, this afternoon. The handicap will probably not be finished until the first of pext week.

THE BIG A STORE

A New Departure--Merchant Tailoring.

We have added the making of Gentlemen's Clothes to measure to our business, simply because we believe that in doing so we supply a "long felt want." New York has the reputation of holding some of the best merchant tailors in the world, but they're also the most expensive. There is no reason why good tailoring should be excessively expensive. We are convinced that firstclass suits and overcoats can be made to order at very reasonable prices-and we simply start out to do it.

We shall have but one price for Gentlemen's Suits (except Prince Alberts and full dress).....

The assortment of materials includes the choicest selections of fall novelties, all the famous woolen mills of the Old as well as the New World being represented. The cutting, fitting, making and trimming will be first-class throughout-just as good and often better than what you used to get for $35 to $40 at your former tailors.
